1 - You have given the facility to check the module's online Demo on www.fastcreators.com/products.php.

you will get this module on "as it is" basis and we do not accept any responsibility to provide you extra services for the price you are paying for this module.

2 - This Module is bug-free at the time we handover it to you, it does not contain any viruses, spyware or any other harmful stuff. However we do not accept any responsibility for any kind of damage or loss of data to your system and we cannot be accountable for anything in this regard.

3 - we provide you its complete source code so that you can customize it according to your needs.

4 - We try our best to keep our customers upto date and provide them updates but this should not be interpreted as our limitations and we are not bound to provide you updates and we cannot be compelled or directed for this. however, to give you a few examples, recently AOL changed its protocols, we fixed it and sent the patch to all our customers who had bought AOL module from us.
We improved our FAQs module and sent the new version for FREE to our all FAQs customers, and even for our FREE module i.e contact Form, we improved it and we also provide full support to our free module customers and many more examples clearly tell the fact that we as Fast Creators are committed to give you the best solutions but sometimes we face problems due to irresponsible attitude of some customers that is why we wanted to mention it clearly that we would not be bound to give you updates and we could not be accountable for this however we would try our best to do so.

5 - we do not store any kind of information from this module and we do not have any kind of relation with the information processed with this module. it is your ownership now and you are the only person responsible for its working and information processed with this module.

6 - Payments once made are not refundable in any case and you cannot ask for any kind of refund.

7 - We will send you the package only when we confirm your payment.

8 - The agreed price of the module is Exclusive of any kind of taxes or service charges of Payment Integration Gateways.

9 - We may change this "User Agreement / Terms OF Use" from time to time. Changes to this document are effective upon posting. Please check back periodically for updates.

10- If you have doubts about the technology you would need on your server to run module without problems then please send us email at sales@fastcreatos.com we will answer your all questions. We would not be responsible if once you have bought the module and if it is not working due to your HOST / Server configuration and support problem.
